Bespoke porcelain lights, lamps and candle sleeves

Freddy Payne designs and makes atmospheric lighting from porcelain. Designs range from historical to contemporary. Each sleeve or shade is individually crafted and can be made for use with traditional light bulbs, candles or long-life low-energy electric bulbs. Prices from £10.

Candle sleeves (or covers) are a speciality. They are produced to your own specification to renovate or update existing fittings. They can transform antique or modern wall lights, lamps, sconces or chandeliers. Popular designs include those incorporating a Coat of Arms, logo, initials or portraits.

Previous Clients include Gidleigh Park, The Bath Priory, Charlton House - Somerset, The Manor House - Castle Combe, The Old Bell - Cotswolds, Bruce Munro Ltd,

Technical processes and materials used . . hand built porcelain combined with glass fibre, forming sheets. Figurative images laminated between layers. Also textured patterns from embossed, burnt away materials producing translucent sculptural lighting. Choice of cream or polar white finish.
